Cover Letter — cryptohero.ca — Affiliate & Partnerships Manager

Dear Hiring Manager,

Building an affiliate program that actually compounds -- not just a spreadsheet of sign-up links -- comes down to treating affiliates like a managed channel, not a set-and-forget list. Here's what I'd bring to that:

1. A structured recruitment-to-onboarding pipeline for affiliates and influencers, so growth doesn't stall waiting on ad-hoc outreach.
2. Commission structures negotiated around actual affiliate LTV, not flat rates that either overpay low performers or underpay your best ones.
3. An ongoing relationship cadence that keeps top affiliates active and promoting, instead of recruiting once and going quiet.

Proof this works: I took a client's Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then turned that audience into $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days through a mix of direct sales, ad-revenue share, and paid partnerships -- the same discipline of turning relationships into tracked, recurring revenue that this role needs.

Happy to walk through how I'd structure the first 90 days of the affiliate program.

Best,
Caleb Marvel

2. Verilay — Growth Lead

CHINWENDU MARVELLOUS AJAEGBU-CALEB

Also known as Caleb Marvel

Growth Lead | Full-Funnel Growth Marketer | Go-to-Market Builder

Owerri, Nigeria • Remote-first • calebmarvel9@gmail.com • linkedin.com/in/caleb-marvel

SUMMARY

Growth marketer with direct experience building go-to-market systems from zero across genuinely different verticals -- from a B2B agricultural marketplace (lead-gen funnels and attribution infrastructure built from the ground up) to consumer fintech education (0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, monetized to $5,000+ in 30 days). Comfortable defining ICP and positioning from real prospect conversations, running structured experiments across channels, and documenting repeatable playbooks rather than one-off wins.

CORE SKILLS

Go-to-Market Strategy • ICP Definition & Positioning • Full-Funnel Growth • Experimentation & Channel Testing • B2B Lead-Gen Funnels • GA4 & HubSpot Attribution • Paid Social & Performance Marketing • Playbook Documentation • CAC/LTV Analysis

EXPERIENCE

Digital Marketing Strategist & Media Buyer -- Independent / Contract

- Ran growth and demand-gen strategy for Zonia Hub, a B2B agricultural marketplace, building lead-gen funnels and GA4/HubSpot tracking infrastructure from the ground up to improve lead quality and attribution on both sides of a two-sided platform.
- Took James Trading Strategies' Instagram and Facebook accounts from 0 to 10,000+ followers within 7 days using organic content plus targeted paid boosting, then monetized the audience within 30 days -- generating $5,000+ in client revenue through direct product/service sales, platform ad-revenue share, and paid brand partnerships.

Cover Letter — Verilay — Growth Lead

Dear Hiring Manager,

Verilay is at the stage where the hardest problem isn't the technology, it's translating "privacy-focused ZK Rollup + DID layer" into an offer a non-technical buyer immediately understands. Here's what I'd bring to that:

1. Clear, simple positioning and ICP definition built from real conversations with early prospects, not assumptions -- so messaging matches how buyers actually describe their problem.
2. A structured experiment log across enterprise sales, partnerships, and product-led channels, so you learn what's working in weeks, not quarters.
3. Documented playbooks from day one, so whatever channel proves out is repeatable the moment you're ready to hire beyond a single growth hire.

I've built go-to-market systems from zero before across genuinely different verticals -- from a B2B agricultural marketplace (Zonia Hub) to consumer fintech education (James Trading Strategies, 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, monetized to $5,000+ in 30 days) -- the constant across both was building the acquisition system before scaling spend, which is exactly Verilay's stage right now.

I'd welcome a conversation about Verilay's current GTM experiments and where I could plug in first.

Best,
Caleb Marvel

3. Crypto Fund Trader — Regional Growth Manager (Nigeria/West Africa)

CHINWENDU MARVELLOUS AJAEGBU-CALEB

Also known as Caleb Marvel

Regional Growth Manager (Nigeria/West Africa) | Fintech & Trading Audience Growth

Owerri, Nigeria • Remote-first • calebmarvel9@gmail.com • linkedin.com/in/caleb-marvel

SUMMARY

Growth marketer with direct, compliance-sensitive fintech/trading-education experience and real market knowledge of Nigeria and West Africa. Took a trading-strategies client's Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then monetized that audience to $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days -- the same trading-audience acquisition problem this region needs solved. Comfortable building CAC-tracked funnels from first touch to funded outcome and developing partnership channels with trading communities already active in-market.

CORE SKILLS

Regional Market Growth (Nigeria/West Africa) • Fintech & Trading-Audience Acquisition • Compliance-Sensitive Paid Media • Affiliate & Partnership Channels • CAC-Tracked Funnel Building • Social Media Management & Monetization • GA4 & HubSpot

Cover Letter — Crypto Fund Trader — Regional Growth Manager (Nigeria/West Africa)

Dear Hiring Manager,

I'd apply specifically for the Nigeria / West Africa market. Retail crypto trading interest here is real and growing, but most global prop firms treat the region as an afterthought -- that gap is the opportunity. Here's what I'd bring to owning it:

1. A region-specific acquisition playbook built on actual knowledge of how Nigerian retail traders discover and evaluate trading platforms -- not a copy-pasted global funnel.
2. Partnership and affiliate channel development with the trading communities and creators already active in this market.
3. A CAC-tracked funnel from first touch to funded trader account, so growth here is measurable, not just "activity."

Direct proof this works in exactly this niche: I took James Trading Strategies' Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then monetized that audience to $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days -- a trading-education audience, the closest possible match to what Crypto Fund Trader needs in this market.

Happy to walk through how I'd approach the first 90 days growing the Nigeria/West Africa market.

Best,
Caleb Marvel

4. Collectibles.com — Discord Community Manager

CHINWENDU MARVELLOUS AJAEGBU-CALEB

Also known as Caleb Marvel

Community & Social Media Manager | Audience Growth & Engagement Specialist

Owerri, Nigeria • Remote-first • calebmarvel9@gmail.com • linkedin.com/in/caleb-marvel

SUMMARY

Growth marketer with a track record of building audiences from a standing start and keeping them engaged with a real content cadence -- not just posting activity. Took a client's Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then converted that engaged audience into $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days. Manages multi-platform social presence (Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, TikTok, LinkedIn, Snapchat, Telegram, X) with a focus on engagement metrics that move members from lurkers to active participants, not just raw follower counts.

CORE SKILLS

Community Management & Engagement Strategy • Content & Events Cadence Planning • Social Media Management (8 platforms) • Engagement Analytics & Metrics Tracking • Follower Growth & Audience Building • Social Monetization Strategy • Direct-Response Copywriting

Cover Letter — Collectibles.com — Discord Community Manager

Dear Hiring Manager,

A Discord community only stays active if there's a real cadence behind it, not just a channel that goes quiet between drops. Here's what I'd bring to keeping Collectibles.com's community engaged:

1. A weekly content and events rhythm -- polls, announcements, conversations -- planned in advance instead of reactive, so the server has a pulse even on slow weeks.
2. Engagement tracking that shows which content types and events actually move members from lurkers to active participants, not just raw member-count growth.
3. A startup-ready approach to ownership -- I'd expect to wear multiple hats early on and build the systems so the community function scales as the team does.

I've built exactly this kind of audience-to-engagement discipline before: I took a client's Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then turned that engaged audience into $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days -- the same principle of treating community growth as a measurable system, not a vibe.

Would welcome a conversation about where the Collectibles.com community is headed next.

Best,
Caleb Marvel

5. CoinFunnel — Crypto PR / Business Development Executive

CHINWENDU MARVELLOUS AJAEGBU-CALEB

Also known as Caleb Marvel

Business Development Executive | Outreach & Sales Pipeline Specialist

Owerri, Nigeria • Remote-first • calebmarvel9@gmail.com • linkedin.com/in/caleb-marvel

SUMMARY

Direct-response marketer who runs a daily, personalized outreach pipeline as a core operating discipline -- researching every contact before reaching out, tracking replies and proposals through to close, and reporting on real numbers rather than vague activity. Converted a monetized social audience into $5,000+ in client revenue within 30 days through direct sales, ad-revenue share, and paid partnerships -- the same close-and-compound approach this role runs on. Comfortable owning client relationships past the first close to build repeat accounts.

CORE SKILLS

Cold Outreach & Pipeline Management • Business Development & Client Sourcing • Proposal-to-Close Tracking & Weekly Reporting • Client Relationship Management & Repeat Accounts • Direct-Response Copywriting • Social & Paid Partnership Revenue • CRM (HubSpot)

Cover Letter — CoinFunnel — Crypto PR / Business Development Executive

Dear Hiring Manager,

CoinFunnel's model rewards whoever actually runs the outreach pipeline every day, not whoever has the best title -- that's a system I already operate, not a skill I'd be learning on the job. Here's what I'd bring to it:

1. A daily, personalized outreach cadence across the channels crypto/Web3 clients actually respond on -- no templated spam, every message researched first.
2. A tracked pipeline from first outreach through proposal to close, reported weekly with real numbers -- leads, replies, proposals sent, revenue closed -- not vague activity metrics.
3. A focus on repeat accounts, not one-off sales -- the relationship after the first close is where the real commission compounds.

Proof this works: I took a client's Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then converted that audience into $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days through direct sales, ad-revenue share, and paid partnerships -- the same close-and-compound discipline this role runs on.

Runs a weekly testing cadence on hooks, formats, and posting times so growth compounds instead of plateauing.

Cover Letter — vibetrade.fun — Part-Time Social Media & Content Manager

Dear Hiring Manager,

vibetrade.fun's whole premise -- making trading content genuinely watchable and shoppable -- lives or dies on the content engine behind it. Here's what I'd bring to that:

1. A platform-native short-form content system built around what's actually driving discovery on the app right now, not generic crypto-Twitter recycled content.
2. A weekly testing cadence on hooks, formats, and posting times so the content-to-trade pipeline keeps improving instead of plateauing.
3. A clear read on which content actually drives buyable-content discovery and trader activation, not just views.

Direct proof this transfers: I took a trading-strategies client's Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then monetized that audience to $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days -- the same trading-plus-social-content combination vibetrade.fun runs on.

Prior community involvement is in growth marketing and social audiences generally; still developing a specific footprint inside Web3/crypto communities, and brings acquisition discipline plus a fast ramp-up rather than overstated prior involvement.

CORE SKILLS

Cover Letter — Fiber — Community Ambassador

Dear Hiring Manager,

Here's what I'd bring to growing Fiber's presence and adoption:

1. Structured growth of awareness and community engagement using the same organic-plus-paid approach I've used to take social accounts from a standing start to a real, monetized audience -- not just posting activity.
2. A measurable path from awareness to adoption, treating community growth as a tracked funnel rather than a vanity-metric exercise.
3. Honest, direct communication -- I'd rather build credibility with your community over time than oversell involvement I don't have yet.

Proof this approach works: I took a client's Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then monetized that audience to $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days.

I'd want to be upfront that my prior community involvement is in growth marketing and social audiences generally, not yet inside a specific Web3 community -- I'd bring the acquisition discipline and grow into the ecosystem fast.

Best,
Caleb Marvel

Cover Letter — Decentralized Masters — Virtual Assistant, Fulfilment

Dear Hiring Manager,

Membership operations run smoothly when someone treats every account action as something that has to be right the first time, not fixed later. Here's what I'd bring to the Fulfilment team:

1. Accurate, timely processing of membership actions (extensions, pauses, access changes) with a system for double-checking before anything is marked done.
2. Consistent mailbox monitoring and response, so member questions don't sit unanswered past a reasonable SLA.
3. Clear, professional written communication that reflects well on the brand in every member interaction, not just the easy ones.

I bring strong organizational systems from running my own client operations -- tracking outreach, deliverables, and follow-through across multiple accounts at once, which is the same discipline this role needs applied to membership fulfilment.

I'm available to work EST-aligned hours and would welcome the opportunity to discuss the role further.

Cover Letter — garden3d — Head of Marketing & Communications

Dear Hiring Manager,

garden3d isn't one brand voice, it's five -- Sanctuary Computer, XXIX, Index Space, USB Club, and the garden3d umbrella itself -- and the job is making all of them worth paying attention to at once. Here's what I'd bring to owning that:

1. A distinct content and distribution system for each brand under the house, so USB Club doesn't sound like XXIX doesn't sound like the garden3d Substack -- five real voices, not one voice repeated five times.
2. A production cadence across Substack, podcast, Instagram, and X that doesn't wait on a designer or a sign-off chain -- content made and shipped on a rhythm.
3. A clear read on which channel is actually building audience for which brand, so the paid accounts behind them are spending against what's working, not what feels active.

Direct proof I can build and monetize an audience from a standing start: I took a client's Instagram and Facebook from 0 to 10,000+ followers in 7 days, then converted that audience into $5,000+ in revenue within 30 days -- the same build-a-voice-then-monetize-it arc this role runs, applied at house-of-brands scale.

I'd welcome the chance to walk through how I'd approach the first 90 days across garden3d's channels.

Best,
Caleb Marvel
